Asset Folio behind the scenes- -who are we and what we really do...

This week, we have a pleasure to introduce Gavin Wright, an investment advisor of Asset Folio, a great-colleague-and excellent team player. He has been on the coast for two years, and with the AF team for just over a year. Gavin has the enthusiasm like no others and his ability to motivate the rest of the 'assetfolioers' is never a problem, even on a Monday morning. He certainly is the kind of person who manages to achieve what he believes he can achieve. The past week has been hot for him and his career at Asset Folio is booming. Watch the video-to-find-out-why..
